

Do not change the NJ do not call law. I want my privacy and cannot stand the solicitations that used to annoy me all day and evening. People need privacy, if I want to buy something I will go find it. Please keep our phones private.

Al Porfido